

2024 - 2025 Maine Jump$Start Coalition Financial Educator of the Year Award

The Board of Directors of the Maine Jump$Start Coalition for Personal Financial Literacy is seeking nominations for the Maine Jump$Start Coalition Financial Educator of the Year Award. This award was created to recognize a Maine educator who has distinguished themselves through their efforts to improve the financial capability of the students and families they serve.

The Board is particularly interested in PreK-12 classroom teachers who have successfully adapted free, non-commercial curriculum materials; or developed an innovative approach to engage students in topics related to personal finance. Creativity and enthusiasm for incorporating personal finance in the classroom and successful integration of technology will also be considered.

The award recipient will receive full travel reimbursement to attend the 2024 National Jump$Start Educator's Conference on November 2-4 in Louisville, Kentucky.

Attached are the nominating materials and criteria for the award. The deadline for submitting the award nomination form(s) is Friday, August 2, 2024.

Nominations can be submitted via e-mail to mainejumpstart207@gmail.com.

The award winner and his/her nominee will be notified by August 9th. The award recipient is expected to attend the 2025 Fostering Financial Education in Maine Schools Conference for special recognition.

Thank you for your assistance with this request for nominations. Should you have questions or comments, please contact Maine Jump$Start President Mary Dyer at mainejumpstart207@gmail.com, or at (800) 228-3734, extension 3556.
